POULTRY POINTERS.

Remember that "well fed is half bred" with poultry as with other live stock.

Milk is worth more when fed to hens than when fed to pigs. The hens like it sweet or sour.

Young chickens need animal food, but they will not thrive well if given too large rations of rich food.

Never grease the hen that is sitting, as grease getting on the shells of the eggs will close the pores and smother the chickens.

Laying hens must have bread and milk. Eggs cannot be produced without uterogenous material in some shape. Keep a supply of bone meal or oyster shell convenient.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup seems especially adapted to the needs of the children. Pleasant to take; soothing in its influence. It is the remedy of all remedies for every form of throat and lung disease.

Ten thousand demons gnawing away at one's vitals couldn't be much worse than the tortures of itching piles. Yet there's a cure. Doan's Ointment never fails.

Burdock Blood Bitters gives a man a clear head, an active brain, a strong vigorous body—makes him fit for the battle of life.

Croup instantly relieved. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Perfectly safe. Never fails. At any drug store.

Are you about to build? If so see that your builder's contract has a clause providing that the structure shall be erected by union labor which will insure you of good work and a job completed without delay. Per order Union 481, Carpenters and Joiners of America. S. R. Doty, Sec.

KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN

Hatchery For Giants.

The $2,000,000 legacy left by Count Alfred St. Onen de Pierrecourt to his native city of Rouen on condition that provision be made for propagating a race of giants has finally been disposed of, says the Paris correspondent of the New York World. The natural heirs began litigation, which has now resulted in an agreement that the city shall spend $100,000 in founding an institute for giants, keeping $800,000 in reserve and giving the balance to the legitimate heirs. It is proposed to maintain in this novel institute a score or more of giant couples, establishing workshops for them and conditions favorable for scientists to observe the result of the progeny of giant couples.

A Few Words

About the Union Label.

Open the oven door of any "Built to Bake" Household Range and inside you'll find the label of the Iron Moulders' Union. Every union man knows what that little slip of paper means, and to those who don't we will say that it is a guarantee of good workmanship and good material.

Household

ranges are union made from start to finish and the Household makers were first to adopt the union label.
